COMING EVENTS

Cast Their Shadows on Before —A Great Animal Show.

With Norris and Rowe's big trained animal shows, which will exhibit in this city Wednesday afternoon and night, April 25, under their large waterproof tents, which will be located centrally, is a "stagestruck" canine, who answers to the name of Hamlet.

The dog is a cross between a "galler" and a cur dog, but is particularly bright and affectionate. Hamlet joined out with the show at New Westminster last season of his own volition. The dog was noticed around the tents all day with a sort of wish-I-was-with-the-show look in his eye. After the performance in the evening, when the men were loading the cars, they found Hamlet seated on the front steps of the baggage car. They tried to make him go away, but he determinedly remained where he was seated and the endeavors of the men to get him to go were of no avail, so as a last resort they placed him inside with the other dog actors. Hamlet made friends of his canine companions and was soon the favorite of all the attaches.

He was taken in hand by Professor Norris, and showed a willingness and aptitude for learning tricks that was nothing short of phenomenal. Hamlet is now one of the star performers of the show. Unlike the other dogs he is given the freedom of the tents; can go and come when he pleases, but he never abuses the trust and confidence put in him. He is a great dog and no mistake.

FUSION AND FREEDOM.

When nature seems to be at peace with the universe and itself and all there is about us is typifying the great future, there falls upon the ear from a distant a muffled sound of thunder that reminds us that we are still on the earth, where all there is that we admire and call beautiful is in contention. Men are to-day peaceable and orderly, conversing together in harmony and good will. To-morrow we may find their wills in opposition and murmurings that precede contention may be heard in whispers, presaging a coming storm.

Strange as it may seem, it is true that these men will seek the place where contention is looked for, and that will come as sure as they represent the principle of contention there is in nature. Still more strange it may seem when it is learned that they love contention, and for that cause invite it. When we have entered more fully into the secret of this love of strife, it is learned that of all action in the brute forces it is the action that includes the principle that develops and makes men what they should be in a world of contention.

Wherever there is contention there is in it a principle representing freedom asserting itself. Democratic conventions have been and are notorious for the contention there is in the members who make up these bodies. So is it also notorious that freedom is ever actively asserting itself among Democrats, which explains the cause for their opposition to all manner of slavery to the race. There will not be to them any Democratic party or G. O.
P. when absolute freedom, subject to order and law, is removed. Long may it wave from the pillars of the Democratic party.

The forces have for the present ceased their contention and quiet has been restored over the work of the late Democratic convention at Reno, but the active principle is still making itself heard in exceptions taken by those who know they were right, when overruled by the convention.

The writer would have been pleased to have been a member of the convention, but the kindness and cruelty of Major Dennis mixed him up so that he did not recover from the shock given in time to become a proxy member.
A Democrat such as is the Major should have known, and did know, that any abridgement of the rights of a Democrat would be resisted by him.
The Major came to the JOURNAL office the day before the convention and said to some one present that the "senior stiff of the concern could have a proxy to the convention," which was kind of the Major; "but tell him it is on the condition that he will not make any long-winded speeches" which is the cruel part of the business.

A Democrat will not go to a Democratic convention with his freedom tied up in a knot. The Major had the protection of the convention in view against a prose speech, and the principle of freedom was lost sight of in the fatigue imposed upon him by the business of the convention.

Editor Booher of the Independent, in his review of the proceedings of the convention, of which he was a member and an active participant in its business, seems to be of the opinion that the work was largely a job.

Clayton Belknap, the chairman, as the editor understands the play, was chief villain in the plot. The chair-man's hearing at times was very much out of order and at other times it was so keen in its sense that it could detect the whisperings of the soul of a demon. The soul of mischief, Mr.
Booher, believes it to have been, which belief may be supported by circumstances, one of which is, Will Sharon is a silver party fusionist and Belknap is a Democrat who favors fusion, another circumstance is that Belknap lives in Virginia City and that shy fox Sharon has a hole up there, and it may be he has by some means secured the ear of Belknap.

It is known that Sharon was active at the convention aiding fusion which may be a circumstance that favors the editor's theory. It is also well known that Sharon is not only active as a fusionist but is also active as a confessionist, who in that capacity represents a large body of the men in both the Silver and Democratic parties.
These men believe in fusion of the Democratic and Silver parties and they also believe in the confusion of Wallace and his cohorts, who are in opposition to fusion. The opposition of Wallace and the gang to fusion should be conclusive upon the policy of fusion being the best in politics for the State, as it is known that Wallace and the gang have never been known to favor anything that would aid the State.

We are pleased to agree with the editor of the Independent about much of the work in convention. The JOUR-NAL agrees with the Independent that fusion was a put up job in the convention and will give as a reason for the view taken that the body of the convention favored fusion and when that state of things is present in any body the job is put up and carried through.
The view taken by the Independent about Chairman Belknap is also sustained by the JOURNAL upon the theory that the chairman went into the chair when the only ear in his possession was a Silver fusion ear which accounts for his seeming opposition to anything in the convention that did not favor fusion.

Anything that did not favor fusion in the convention was out of harmony with the feelings of the body of its members and the chairman responding to harmony might properly refuse to entertain discordant sentiment. The Independent and JOURNAL agree respecting the work of the convention upon the facts and it is the JOURNAL's wish that the papers might agree upon conclusions arrived at upon the facts.
What ever the opinion of others may be regarding the work of the convention the JOURNAL is and will continue to be unreserved in its support of fusion but will concede to each Democrat the cardinal principle of the party, which is his right to freedom.

YESTERDAY'S BIG STORM

Will Prove of Incalculable Benefit to the Entire State.

The stockmen and farmers all over Nevada are happy to-day on account of the storm, which appears to have been general throughout the State.
Snow began falling about noon.
While it melted here almost as fast as it descended, the hills were deeply covered. Henry Cutting came down from the N. E. and D. Co.'s mine on Peavine mountain about the middle of the afternoon. He says there was eleven inches of snow then on the level, with prospects of three feet.
Wires were down to the eastward and trains felt their way from station to station. The storm was slow to reach the summit, little more falling at Truckee than here during the afternoon.

The precipitation will be of untold benefit to crops, although the resulting cold snap will doubtless put a quietus upon the fruit buds.

Addressed to the Kicker.

Mr. Roy Reese: I noticed in the JOURNAL Friday morning that you wanted some one to kick you for blowing yourself for two tickets to see the show Wednesday night. In the first place, where did you get the girl, and, in the second place, how did you get hold of two complimentary seats?

LITIGATION OVER NEVADA MINES

Conspiracy Charged Against Officials of an Eureka Company.

Special to the JOURNAL.

CHICAGO, April 20.—William Whalen of Eureka, Nevada, with George Leighton, Walter Jewett and other residents of Grand Rapids, Michigan, have filed suit in the circuit court, asking that a receiver be appointed for the Whalen Consolidated Mining company and that its officers be enjoined from selling any of its stock.

The company's capital stock is $2,500,000 and its mines are located in Eureka county. Whalen complains that the defendants have conspired to discredit the company and to depress the value of its stock so that they could obtain control of it at a low figure.

LITTLE BROWN MEN FROM THE ORIENT

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The influx of Japanese laborers at Pacific Coast ports is attracting the serious attention of the Treasury Department. F. D. Heustis, Collector of Customs at Port Townsend, announces that 1,000 Japs have already arrived and 2,200 more are en route to Port Townsend.
It is thought the Japs are emigrating to avoid military service, in case of war with Russia, but this reason is not considered sufficient.

Boers Still Besieging Wepener.

Special to the JOURNAL.

ALIWAI, North, April 20.—The Boers still surround Wepener, but there is little or no fighting of a serious kind going on. Up to the present time it is reported that the Boers have lost 100 men and that four guns have been disabled.

Preparing for the Fray.

Special to the JOURNAL.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Every indication points to the fact that the fight between Corbett and Jeffries may take place before May 1st. Both men are training hard.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself began to catch cold we begin to use the cough remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEAKLE, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie Bedford county, Pa. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at the drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

Horrible Catastrophe.

A boat has disappeared from the pavilion platform. The young men at the dance did not all know that the plank had been taken to Carson to insert in the Republican platform that never eventuated, and three fellows stepped where the board should have been and broke four bottles.

Event Called Off.

THE DIVORCE GRANTED

Sad Case of Mrs. Thomas, Who is an Inmate of the Asylum.

The marriage of J. J. Thomas and Mrs. Thomas was annulled yesterday by Judge Currier in the Second District Court.

Alfred Chartz of Carson was attorney for the plaintiff and the case for the defendant was conducted by Frank H. Norcross. The case was an interesting one. The plaintiff is an assayer in Virginia. He married the defendant in 1889. In his complaint he alleged that she went insane in 1891 and since that time has been confined in the State asylum. The grounds on which the divorce was granted were that the defendant was a victim of alcoholism to the extent that she was unable to contribute her quota to the support of the family.

The late Mrs. Thomas has a mania that she is the Silver Queen and has been confined on the orders of her rival, Queen Victoria. When six years have elapsed she believes that she will be miraculously released from Fort Patterson and will enter the lists against Queen Vic, whom she will overthrow and reign in her stead.

Mrs. Thomas is a sweet singer. The charm of her voice has increased during confinement. When the patients are given their Saturday night dances Mrs. Thomas presides at the piano and sings for the edification of the company. She dresses in silk and satin. Her gowns are of fantastic design, resembling very crazy crazy quilts. The needle work with which they are wrought together, is the subject for admiration by visitors to the asylum.

A Life and Death Fight.
Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Glorious News.
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson Druggist, Guaranteed.
